Yasmin Ahmad

August 19, 2009 by penangtravel

Yasmin Ahmad passed away on the 25th of July 2009 at the age of 51.

Yasmin was an internationally renowned filmmaker. Her TV commercials won multiple awards throughout the world. Her feature films were screened or competed in international film festivals such as San Francisco, Berlin, Hong Kong, Singapore and Busan. In 2006, Tokyo International Film Festival honored her by featuring all her films in a special retrospective program. Her hitherto most popular feature film – ‘Sepet’ – became an instant classic of Malaysian cinema when it was released in 2004. Often based on recurring themes of youthful love in the face racial or religious intolerance, Yasmin’s films were occasionally controversial, often thought provoking, but always beautiful and humane. Deeply loved for her vivacious personality as much as her humanistic vision of Malaysia, an entire nation mourned when she died. Yasmin was the most important filmmaker in Malaysia for generations. She is missed by millions of Malaysians.

‘Chocolate’ was her last film.

Here in My Home

August 18, 2009 by penangtravel

Here in My Home – a song for Malaysian..

Lyrics:

Verse 1:

Hold on brother [won't you] hold on
The road's long. We're on stony ground
But I'm strong. You ain't heavy

Verse 2:

Oh there's a misspoken truth that lies
Colors don't bind, oh no.
What do they know? They speak falsely.

Chorus:

Here in my home
I'll tell you what its all about
There's just one hope here in my heart
One Love undivided
That's what it's all about
Please won't you fall in one by one by one with me?

Verse 3:

Push back sister [won't you] push back?
Love won't wait. Just keep pushing on.
Yes I'm strong. You ain't heavy.

Verse 4:

Oh don't you worry about that
What we have the shadows can't deny Don't you know it's now or never?
